In 1849 they started a firm to manufacture fanning mills. In 1852, they purchased a large stock of drygoods & opened a store in Columbia City. Franklin Foust annually went to New York to purchase goods. He also did collecting and banking on the side. His accounting system consisted of a note showing the amount & from whom; he charged no interest. Franklin was so honest that people trusted him with their money. During the Civil War he did a brisk business. He had a huge old fashioned fire-proof safe in his store. One day he checked & found he had over $60,000 in accounts, a huge amount in that day. It was then he decided to start a bank. This he did in 1867; the bank is still going strong in Columbia City, IN. During these same yrs. Franklin Foust bought over 1000 acres around Columbia City & brought his brother Alfred, from OH. to run these farms. Franklin married Maxie Jones in Columbia City in 1850. They had no children. "History of Whitley and Noble Counties, Indiana" Written by Weston A. Goodspeed and Charles Blanchard, and published in Chicago by F. A. Battey & Co., in 1882.

when the present partnership was formed. Mr. Edwards was married in Columbia City, in 1870, to Miss Elizabeth White, and they have one daughter, Anna M. Mr. Edwards is a Republican and a member of the A., F. & A. M., of Columbia City, a man of fine business ability, and highly esteemed by all.

CHARLES J. EYANSON was born September 20, 1839, in Versailles, Ripley Co., Ind. A year or more after his birth, his parents returned to Philadelphia, Penn., from which place they had previously removed. Here Charles J. acquired his education, and, in 1853, engaged in the dry goods trade, which he continued for three years, after which he learned the tailor's trade, which he has since followed, with the exception of an engagement as general agent for a sewing machine company, when he traveled over the South, establishing local agencies. In 1860, he formed a partnership with his brother, Thomas E., in Huntington, Ind., in merchant tailoring, where he remained until 1862, where he went to Roanoke, to carry on the same business. In 1865, his partnership, was resumed with his brother, at Columbia City, on an extended scale, under the firm name of Eyanson Brothers, at the same time carrying on the manufacture of woolen goods in the woolen mills at the same place. The partnership with his brother was continued until January, 1874, when it was dissolved, Charles J. continuing the business alone. Besides his tailoring establishment with its dozen employees, he carries a large and general assortment of ready-made clothing, cloths, hats, caps and gents' furnishing goods, doing a successful business. November 20, 1866, he contracted marriage with Miss Magdaline Zimmerman, a native of Blumenfeld, Baden, Germany, and they are parents of six children-Charles J., Stephen T., Walburgh M., Frank E., Lewis and John N. Mr. and Mrs. Eyanson are of the Catholic faith. Mr. E. is a Democrat; has held the office of Township Trustee, and is the present Town Treasurer. Mr. Eyanson's great-grandparents, on the father's side, came from the vicinity of Dublin, Ireland, to America, with Lord Baltimore, and John Eyanson, our subject's grandfather, was born in Cecil County, Md., in 1753, and served eight years in the Revolutionary war. A brother of John, our subjects grand-uncle, William, also served in the Revolution, and was taken prisoner at New York; was afterward exchanged, but died from the effects of starvation.

F. H. FOUST is one of the early settlers of this place, and came from Delaware Co., Ohio, to Whitley Co., Ind., in the fall of 1849, locating in Columbia City, and, in partnership with Adam Wolfe (formerly of Morrow Co., Ohio, now of Muncie, Ind.), engaged in the manufacture of fanning-mills. In 1853, they established a partnership in the dry goods business, which was most successfully continued for ten years - Mr. Foust taking entire charge, as Mr. Wolfe never resided here. After the settlement of the affairs of this firm, they established, in November, 1867, a banking firm, under the name of F. H. Foust & Co., and known as the Columbia City Bank. This institution is one of the permanent features of the city, as the individual members are known to be men of undoubted honor and integrity, and solid financially. For the past two years, Mr. James G. Williams has been a partner in the bank. They erected their present three-story brick in 1873, and own a two-fifths interest in the new brick adjoining on the east, known as Foust's Block. The partnership existing between Messrs. Wolfe & Foust is one of the most harmonious on record, having existed since 1849. Mr. Foust was married, December 12, 1850, in Columbia City, to Miss Moxie A. Jones. His birthplace was Delaware County, Ohio, where, on January 10, 1825, he entered this existence. His parents—Henry and Mary (Olds) Foust—were among the early settlers, dating back to 1807, and were of German descent. Mr. Foust is owner of the old homestead. He is a strong, Republican, but has no aspirations for political prominence.

THEODORE GARTY, dealer in black walnut and hard-wood lumber and furniture manufacturer, was born in Lorraine, France, and was the son of John and Catharine Garty. The father died in Lorraine, and the mother afterward married Victor Crouser. They emigrated to America in 1856, and located in Stark County, Ohio, and three years later removed to Columbia City. Here our subject began to learn cabinet-making with Henry Snyder, working three years; then went to Fort Wayne and worked three years; thence to Cincinnati, St. Louis, Quincy, Ill., Hannibal, Mo., Verona, Mo., and various other points, engaging in sundry branches of his trade, and embracing a period of about eleven years. In 1872, he returned to Columbia City, and became associated with Henry Snyder in the furniture business. In 1876, he formed a co-partnership with George Steerhof, which was continued about two years, when he again formed a partnership with Mr. Snyder. In 1880, he became sole proprietor, and is now engaged largely in manufacturing, and employs about twelve men on the average. They had 10 children.

P.77 CUBA FAUST VANCE BOOK-DESCENDANTS OF JACOB FAUST: David Foust, a tall muscular man of fair hair, was born in Northumberland Twp., Berks Co., PA. He was the third child of Jacob and Christenia Faust & was one of the stalwart sons to help his father cut out a home in the wilderness of Delaware Co., OH., in 1807. David fought in the War of 1812, as did several of his brothers. His adult life was all spent in Delaware & Morrow Cos. as a farmer where he made a modest living & raised his family. David then visited his Uncle David in Pickaway Co., where he had lived 5 yrs. previously to coming to Delaware Co., & also where his brother Andrew was getting a start in the State Legislature. David married Mary Jane Mitchell @ Circleville before starting back to Delaware, & she was thinking how lucky she was in getting into such an aristocratic family, was quite dismayed, after traveling many miles in a wagon to find her home just a wood cabin with a dirt floor. But it turned out to be a good marriage & both David & Mary Jane lived to a ripe old age. It is not known whether the following happened to his first or second wife, but this story is told: late afternoon on a day when David happened to be away, 2 male Indians appeared in the doorway of the cabin where David's wife was preparing food for supper. They entered, paying no attention to her or her 2 children cowering in the far corner, & sitting in front of the fireplace, proceeded to eat the pot of food, then stretching out on the hearth promptly went to sleep. At sunup, they arose, looked at David's wife, still cowering, rubbed their stomachs, belched(meaning the food was good) & departed. At 66 years of age Abraham became the father of Austa Foust in Morrow Co, OH, October 9, 1862. Taken from Pg. 82, Cuba Faust Vance Book "Descendants of Jacob Faust" Abraham Foust was born in Berks Co. PA & came to OH as a mere child when his parents migrated to Pickaway Co. in 1800 & later, to Delaware Co. in 1807. Abraham was a stalwart youth & grew to be a tall, muscular man, perhaps the tallest of his many brothers. Having been brought up in the wilderness, he could neither read nor write but was a shrewd calculating business man but honest to the last penny in his dealings. He fought in the War of 1812 & did receive a small pension but being all business, he took most of his pay in bounty land & along with this land, he built up quite a domain for himself & owned over 1,000 acres in the vicinity of Westfield, OH @ the time of his death. Almost as long as he lived, he permitted the Indians to return in the summer months &

encamp on his land along the Whetstone River. The Indians in return presented his family with gifts of beaded slippers & purses, etc. It is written in Baskins 1880 Morrow Co., OH. History that while serving in the War of 1812 in the vicinity of Detroit, Abraham became ill, so was issued supplies & sent home to recuperate. Returning home, his illness worsened & some woman took him in to nurse him back to health but when her house was surrounded by the enemy, she managed to assist him in escaping & he was able to cover the many miles back home. He was a Universalist in religion & was very generous in donating $75 to build a church @ Westfield, OH. Their meetings were held in a home & the church never became a reality. Abraham was smarrried twice, his 1st wife was a widow with 5 children, being widowed when her husband had vanished & was supposedly killed by the Indians. She was 11 yrs. his senior. Abraham 7 Almira had 4 children & some 30 yrs. later, long after Almira had died, he remarried & fathered another family of 4 children. His second wife, again a widow, was 24 yrs. his junior. Emily died when her youngest child was about 6 yrs. old, but Abraham lived to rear his family to adulthood. Although Abraham could neither read nor write, he accumulated enough land & money to be considered quite wealthy, in fact the wealthiest of all his family. He kep many yokes of oxen, renting them out to neighbors. He loaned money, never taking a note, saying that if a man's word wasn't any good, neither was the piece of paper that it was written on. It is said that he kept his money in a Bible & also had money buried on his land. For which many relatives dug & hunted for after his death. If any money was ever found, it was never told. Abraham left each of his 8 children a farm, one 50 acre parcel being kept in the family until the yr. of 1988.

At 53 years of age Jonas became the father of Hubbard (Hearb) Foust in OH, 1860. Jonas Foust was born in Franklinton Co. Territory that a couple of yrs. later became Morven Twp.(later called Marlborough Twp)Delaware Co., OH. He was the 8th child of Jacob & Christenia & he was surrounded by forests for the first yr. or two of his life, when a few other families moved in, forming a settlement. He grew up to be a hunter & hunting & fighting became a way of life for him & his family. Being a crack shot, it is written that at a distance of 100 paces, he could drive a nail into the trunk of a tree by a single rifle shot. He also would ride several miles into the forest, then turning towards home & dropping the reins, he would blaze a trail, as his horse found his way back home. Maybe that accounts for many of the winding roads in Marlborough Twp., Delaware Co. & Westfield Twp., Morrow Co. Jonas married twice, was the father of 17 children, of which 13 grew to adulthood. They were a rough family & always poor, depending on his hunting for a living. Himself & both wives are buried in Mound Cemetery.(Page 142 "Descendants of Jacob Faust"by Cuba Vance 1992 Page E34 Faust/Faust Book 1984 B1A2 JONAS FOUST(1806-1884) Jonas was born 11/9/1806 in Delaware Co., OH. He was the son of Jacob Foust & Christina Alspach. Joans was a true pioneer. He weighed about 180 lbs. & was fair-complexioned. His shooting ability was legendary. Jonas could literally shoot the eye out of a squirrel & could drive a nail by shooting it in. Many of the roads in Delaware & Morrow Cos., OH. were laid out by Jonas. Riding his horse a good many miles from Home, Jonas would then let the horse have free rein. The horse would find its way home while Jonas blazed a trail. Restless, Jonas could not stay settled & was always rather poor. He made a living by hunting, a rather unfortunate means to support 17 children. It is said by the cousins of Jonas that his family was the terror of that part of the state of Ohio. Jonas' family would rather fight then eat; the family was considered extremely tough. One Foust told this author that when she started to school and stated her name, the other children were afraid to talk to her. Jonas married twice. His first wife was Susannah Brown, by whom he had Mary, Andrew & George. The second wife was Elizabeth Kester, by whom Jonas had 14 more children. Jonas died 3/29/1884 & is buried in the Mound or Foust Cemetery in Morrow Co., OH.

Jonas came with his father to Morrow Co. in 1820. Up until the Civil War 1861-1865 German was the language of Foust family. They had to learn to speak English to be able to understand their neighbors. In writing the German "A" is written very similar to English "O". Faust is the original way of spelling the name. Jonas came to vicinity of Cardingotn at age 14 until his death he lived on a farm west of Cardington. Jonas died at home of his daughter Mary Amick in Westfield Twp. Morrow Co. where he had gone to spend the winter.

Jonas appeared in the 1850 census of Westfield Twp. Morrow Co.OH. Also in the 1860 census of Cardington, Morrow Co., OH.
